LONDON—The weekly list of British losses of ships by being torpedoed which will be issued this evening will show a total comparable to the worst week of submarine activity. This super-activity is not regarded pessimistically by naval men who point to the constantly increasing number of boats which escape. From the base of the American flotilla in British waters the news is received that on Wednesday two American destroyers were returning with 80 survivors from two torpedoed British ships which were sunk at the farthest point westward in the Atlantic that U-boats have appeared since the ruthless campaign began and the response of the American destroyers to their S. O. S. was run more than a hundred miles.

Vienna—It is reported in official circles today that Tarnowski, former ambassador to the United States, would be the first premier of the new kingdom of Poland. Tarnowski is now in Warsaw.

RED CROSS TEA

Was a Most Pleasant Event—Success Financially

One of the most pleasant events that the Sentinel man has attended lately was the benefit tea given by the Red Cross society Tuesday afternoon in the town hall. The interior of the municipal palace has not heretofore been the most attractive looking place in the world, but on this occasion it had been transformed into a place of beauty, and made specially attractive by being decorated in patriotic colors. The tea was well patronized, and the ladies served most graciously. The receipts were $72.25. During the week the ladies received individual contributions to the extent of $37.50 which means that more than $100 has been realized this week.

FIFTEEN LEAVE FOR TELEGRAPH CREEK ON THE HAZEL B II

The popular Hazel B II, Capt. S. C. Barrington in charge, left Tuesday midnight for Telegraph Creek, with 15 passengers, and 20 tons of freight, mostly for Mrs. A. Hyland. F. French, Leo McCormack, Miss Daisy McCormack, Miss Margaret Bronson, Miss Katharine Bronson, Capt. J. G. Grant, Mrs. J. G. Grant Pat. McCluskey, J. Johnson, and Mrs. Oscar Willett.

HOMER WORDEN GIVEN SURPRISE ON BIRTHDAY

Homer Worden was pleasantly surprised by a party of his friends last Monday evening, the event being his eleventh birthday. The guests assembled during Homer's absence and they presented him with many appropriate gifts on his arrival.

At nine o'clock lunch, consisting of sandwiches, cookies, cake and chocolate, supplemented by ice cream, was appreciated. The smallest children departed at 9:30, while the others enjoyed games until a late hour.

Those present were: Misses Dorothy and Marjorie Johnson, Catharine and Glen Matheson, May and Gertrude Goodrich, Coralie and Billy Cunningham, Margaret Pennycook, Edith Horgheim, Elizabeth Churchill, Gertrude Carlstrom, Katharine Loftus, Margaret Warren, Florence Prescott and Gertrude Osborn; Masters: Lloyd Benjamin, Henry Pigg, Carl Palmer, Wilfred Gartley, Frederick Cunningham, Linny, Elton and Andrew Engstrom, James Wheeler, George Case, Edward Loftus, Joe and Ralph Prescott, Marion Goodrich, Weston Anderson, and James Waters.

According to the Anchorage paper the Doctor collected more than $800 the first day, with the Alaska Engineering Commission yet to be heard from.

NO SEPARATE PEACE TERMS FOR RUSSIA

Petrograd, June 19.—The Duma, in a secret session, has passed a resolution for an immediate offensive by the Russian troops. The resolution declares that a separate peace or prolonged inactivity on the front will be treason to the Russian Allies.

The Council of the Workmen and soldiers has issued a proclamation opposed to a separate peace and urging the soldiers to fight, and Russians in general to rush to arms and fight the common enemy.

Elihu Root, chairman of the American commission, in his first speech here Saturday told the Russian Ministry that the United States "had begun a fight, not only for her own but for Russia's freedom as well to free the world of the German menace of autocracy."

The camp begins at Presidio of San Francisco, Cal., on August 27. I am trying to arrange that applications for admission be passed upon at army posts in Alaska, thus saving an unnecessary trip to the States. Will notify you later about this. Application blanks are being sent by mail to the United States commissioner in your town, and also to the commanding officers of all Alaska army posts. Applicants for commissions are to receive $100 per month while training, also transportation and other expenses.

CHAS. A. SULZER, Delegate from Alaska.

Washington, June 20, 1917.

Applications for reserve corps can be made to examining officers of army to be designated at following places: Anchorage, Valdez, Fort Wm. H. Seward, Fort Davis, Fort Gibbon, Fort St. Michael, Fort Liscum.

The commanding general, western department, orders that all papers and recommendations must be transmitted to Major Saville at Fort Wm. H. Seward, who is the examining officer in charge for Alaska, so as to be in his hands by July 30th.

Out of the applications submitted the board of officers, to be named by the commanding officer at Fort Wm. H. Seward, will make final selection of twenty men on August 1st, and notify them to report to San Francisco for training.

Interior Alaska applicants should keep in touch with the commanding officer at Fort Gibbon in order that no delay may be occasioned after arrival of official application blanks there.

CHAS. A. SULZER, Delegate from Alaska.

National Loyalty and Personal Honor Foundation of True Americanism

By Rev. FRANK W. CROWDER,
Episcopalian, New York City

THE time has come when we must inexorably insist on good citizenship as an indispensable element of common morality. At the same time we must hold to the great truth that personal integrity is the foundation of true Americanism. The ultimate hope of a democracy lies in the balanced union of each individual of NATIONAL LOYALTY AND PERSONAL HONOR AND SERVICE.

Patriotism must include something more than voting and going to war under the impulse of mighty feeling. It must include the whole round of our duties to ourselves and others. The only way by which this is possible is, first, to think of America as of divine origin and with a lofty and sacred mission—the application and spread of the great principles of democracy.

NATIONAL ALLEGIANCE MUST BECOME A PART OF OUR MORAL CODE, A CHALLENGE AND SPUR TO THE FINEST PERSONAL ACHIEVEMENT AS A DIRECT CONTRIBUTION TO THE NATION'S WELFARE.

High School Students of the Nation Should Receive Military Training

By Adjutant General FRED T.
WOOD, Minnesota National Guard

I AM for universal military training in our public schools—in our high schools. I would teach every blessed boy in every state who attends high schools how to handle a rifle, how to take care of himself—in brief, how to be a soldier. Pope said, "Teach the young ideas how to shoot." He spoke more wisely perhaps than he knew.

I BELIEVE THAT OUR YOUTH—BOYS BETWEEN NINE AND SIXTEEN YEARS OF AGE—ARE IN THE BEST POSSIBLE CONDITION THEN FOR MILITARY TRAINING.

I have in Minnesota seven or eight corps of high school boys who are receiving military instruction. They have their regular drills, instruction in marksmanship, camp life and everything else a soldier must know. I have any number of boys ten years old who can handle a rifle better than I can.

This is the kind of universal military training that I favor—call it compulsory service, if you like. WHETHER THE COUNTRY IS PREPARED FOR THE OTHER KIND OF UNIVERSAL SERVICE I DO NOT KNOW.

WANTS LAND RESTORED

The Columbia Salmon Company this morning filed papers in a suit against Robert Scott asking for the restitution of a small tract of land located at Craig, on the west coast of Prince of Wales Island. The company also asks for $500 damages for the retention of the property and $450 alleged due for rents which the company has been deprived of during the possession of the defendant.—Empire.

GREAT NEED FOR A ROAD UP STIKINE

Robert Hyland Says
That Such a Highway
Would Create a New Future for Wrangell.

"Wrangell via the Stikine river is the natural outlet for our trade," said Robert Hyland of Telegraph Creek, in discussing the situation recently. "The people of Telegraph will welcome any move made toward a river road—such an improvement would create a new future for Wrangell as well as the up-river country."

"We desire a more expedient method of transportation from October to June of each year. Nine months of meagre service of dog-team from the interior cannot be compared with a winter route parallel with the Stikine, such as we are now contemplating. Co-operation with the citizens of Wrangell would be highly advantageous to such an enterprise."

"We received mail twice monthly last winter and in that respect the overland service was satisfactory, but the progressive people in this region realize that the way out is down river and not across country. The present system carries out first class mail and a few necessities from below by steamers to Skagway, over the White Horse Road to Carcross and eventually to Atlin, from whence teams are dispatched. The outgoing load is limited and we must hold quantities of skins until the early boats arrive from Wrangell. As all traders know, spring ratings on these products are much lower than those made in the fall and mid-winter, thus the best of these harvests cannot be converted into cash at the right season and it is when this condition occurs and re-occurs that we find ourselves united on the question of a road via the Stikine, where through Wrangell we may get a square deal."

"As far as summer transportation is concerned," Mr. Calbreath interrupted warmly, "We are enjoying excellent service, and let me add that it is thoroughly appreciated. Now that we have an efficient man on the Stikine our great aim is to keep him busy. The Hazel B. El has broken all known gas-boat time records and her progress on this river has caused widespread amazement among qualified river-men."

"Common sense dictates that this reliable power-boat should handle our first mail and in all perishable freight, then why not turn over the remainder of the business to a dependable craft that is operated to promote our interests?"

"Furs", continued Mr. Hyland "are the immediate source of revenue in this district, but mines stand back of pioneer investment here. We want to ship our furs." Perhaps those last six words could be accepted as the "Up-River" slogan,—"And we want to ship them when the prices are right and tempting".

But fur trade alone, phenomenal and fascinating as it is, cannot bring about the growth in this country that the mines insure. The present valuation of copper and iron, to say nothing of the golden and silver treasure that those hills conceal, may at any future time secure attention from outside capital.

Meantime the road question should be agitated. Opposition from Atlin may be expected but the people of Telegraph Creek are most anxious to establish winter trade that should vitally affect Wrangell.

BOUNTY LAW REGULATIONS

The Territorial Treasurer's office is sending out instructions emphasizing that the new wolf bounty and eagle bounty laws enacted by the 1917 legislative assembly requires that affidavits must be made before a United States Commissioner, and that bounties will not be allowed if affidavits are made before other officials.

The change in the wolf bounty law increases the bounty to $15 for each wolf killed and also allows the party killing the animal to retain the pelt, which has not been the case heretofore.

The new wolf bounty and eagle bounty laws became effective on May 3, 1917, and the bounties, therefore, provided in each instance are payable on all wolves and eagles killed after that date.

CRUISING FOR PULP TIMBER IN REGION OF SHRIMP BAY

(Ketchikan Progressive-Miner)

The forest service launch Tahn has just returned from Shrimp Bay, where it left a party of forest service men who intend to spend the entire summer in the region of Shrimp Bay and Traitor's Cove in mapping and estimating the timber which has been applied for in connection with the erection of a large pulp and paper mill in this region. It is the intention to cover an area with a map and estimate that will include one billion feet of timber.

The above interesting bit of news was secured through the courtesy of the local forestry department, the superintendent of which, Mr. Weigle, is much interested in seeing Alaska developed.

National Forest Timber For Sale

Sealed bids will be received by the Forest Supervisor, Ketchikan, Alaska, up to and including July 21, 1917, for all the merchantable dead timber standing or down, and all the live timber marked or designated for cutting on an area of approximately 15 acres lying on the east shore of Burnett Inlet, 1 1/2 miles easterly from the Burnett Inlet Cannery, extending 1500 feet back from the beach, estimated to contain 450,000 feet B. M. of spruce sawtimber, 30,000 feet B. M. of hemlock sawtimber, and 20,000 feet B. M. of red cedar sawtimber, more or less; also on an area of approximately 10 acres lying 1-2 mile northerly from the above area on the same side of Inlet, extending 1000 feet back from beach, estimated to contain 200,000 feet B. M. of spruce, 210,000 feet B. M. of hemlock and 12,000 feet B. M. of red cedar sawtimber, more or less. No bid of less than $1.50 per M for spruce and red cedar and 50c per M for hemlock sawtimber will be considered. Deposit with bid $200.00. The right to reject any and all bids reserved. BEATTIE WILL RETURN NORTH

W. G. Beattie, former district superintendent of the United States Bureau of Education in the First division of Alaska, will return to the Territory at an early date to accept the superintendency of the Metlakatlah division of the Bureau. Mr. Beattie will succeed C. D. Schell, the present superintendent at Metlakatlah. The Bureau reports that work at the Annette Island Reservation has been declining and it is the intention of the department to reinstate and give impetus to the various industries there and to promote civic betterment among the inhabitants. The school at Metlakatlah is under the supervision of the superintendent.

Mr. Beattie left Alaska a year ago for Cottage Grove, Oregon, at which place he accepted the position of superintendent of schools. He declined reappointment in Oregon to again affiliate with the Bureau of Education in Alaska. —Dispatch.

WILL RAISE REINDEER IN THE NELCHINA DISTRICT

(Anchorage Democrat)

The business undertaking of placing a herd of reindeer in the Nelchina district, from all accounts, is receiving every encouragement. The men behind the move are hustlers and are going after the business undertaking with a seriousness and determination that are bound to bring success. It is perhaps not generally known, but nevertheless a fact, that within the memory time of a lot of men now living, the Kenai Peninsula, now famed for the greatest moose pasture in the world, was overrun with caribou. For some reason or other these animals, except a few isolated herds, have left their original stamping grounds, and as caribou and reindeer are one and the same animal, to all intents and purposes, the bringing of a herd of the latter animals will be no innovation, as their cousins, the caribou, were not many years ago numerous in this very locality.

As often before pointed out, the future prosperity of this locality will depend almost entirely on our being able to supply sufficient industries to support the community after the government railroad construction work is over, and big herds of reindeer will be one of the many helping factors.

Crowd the Front Pews. Advertise Your Belief. Go to Church.

WHEN you GO TO CHURCH Sunday MARCH RIGHT UP TO THE FRONT PEWS. Don't take a seat in the rear of the church. In many churches some worshipers make for the rear pews as if they were ashamed to be seen. Is there anything dishonorable in being seen in church? If you go to a theater you are proud to be seen in the front rows. CROWD THE FIRST PEWS OF THE CHURCH.

THERE CERTAINLY IS NOTHING UNMANLY IN GOING TO CHURCH. RATHER IS IT A SIGN OF STRENGTH OF CHARACTER. PILLARS OF THE CHURCH GENERALLY ARE PILLARS OF BUSINESS. ADVERTISE THE FACT THAT YOU GO TO CHURCH. IT PAYS YOU SPIRITUALLY. IT PAYS YOU MATERIALLY. THE CHURCH ENVIRONMENT HELPS THE BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT. THE CHURCH TEACHING HELPS EVERY MAN TO THINK CLEARLY AND TO THINK CORRECTLY. THE CHURCH COMMANDMENTS ARE ONLY THE COMMANDMENTS OF HEALTH AND MIND.

Statistics show that communities with the greater number of churches are prosperous. The people, as a whole, are HAPPY AND CONTENT. If you have neglected going to church, don't let another Sunday pass without making a visit to the house of God.

God is forgiving. He is patient. But his patience may be exhausted if a man continually ignores him. You IGNORE AND OFFEND GOD when you stay away from church. You like to see your children GO TO CHURCH and Sunday school. The children will be DOUBLY IMPRESSED with the importance of attending church if they see the father in church.

GO TO CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY.
GO TO CHURCH EVERY SUNDAY.
